INTRODUCTORY NOTE

Appendix B contains brief descriptions of selected actions by the Intelligence Advisory Committee (IAC), not including the initiation or adoption of National Intelligence Estimates or reports and intelligence papers prepared by permanent committees of the IAC. The National Intelligence Estimates, which occupy the major portion of the time of IAC meetings, are considered briefly in the basic report and more fully in the report on the Office of National Estimates. Background material on the IAC subcommittees is presented in Appendix A.

During the period from 12 January 1947, when the IAC was established, to 20 October 1950, the IAC did not meet regularly and there are no published minutes of meetings. The items selected, therefore, cover the period from 20 October 1950 to 10 August 1954.

This appendix is essentially a study restricted to selected actions formally approved by the IAC as reflected in the minutes of the committee's meetings or in documents prepared for committee consideration. It presents, therefore, only one perspective of IAC activities and should be studied in conjunction with other studies in this series.
